Brisbane Airport Queensland Australia GREAT FOR QUEENSLAND

AUSTRALIAN INDUSTRY GROUP

This is a rare moment when industry and government leaders converge to celebrate the achievements of the Queensland economy. The global environment in which we operate affords little time to reflect on the triumphs of the year. The Queensland Industry Gala Dinner is that moment in time.

Feted by successive Queensland Premiers and the crème of industry pioneers, the dinner is now a ritual in the industry calendar.

Midnight Groove

Following the success of the inaugural Icon of Industry Award in 2009, Ai Group will again be presenting this prestigious award, sponsored by QMI Solutions at the Gala Dinner. The award recognises an individual company's contribution to Queensland's long term economic growth.

Hosted by political satirist Bryan Dawe, and with entertainment provided by first class live band Midnight Groove, the night promises to be a truly memorable occasion.

Bryan Dawe is one of Australia's finest political satirists. He has enjoyed a long, successful career writing and performing on national radio, television and film. Best-known for his work with John Clarke on the ABC's 7.30 Report where they prick the balloons of the nation's alleged political leaders. Bryan was also a cast member and writer of the critically acclaimed and highly successful spoof of the Sydney Olympics, the ABC TV series 'The Games'. His film credits include the Australia hit comedy 'The Castle', 'The Honorable Wally Norman', and Paul Cox's 'Lust and Revenge'.
