

NEW MEMBER - PROFILE

Australian Industry Group would like to welcome On Line Labour Hire as a new member to the Illawarra and South Eastern Regions.

On Line Labour Hire works for you, giving you efficient access to the right staff.

On Line Labour Hire specialises in providing businesses with immediate access to suitably skilled personnel, either through labour hire or as a recruitment specialist. On Line Labour Hire are flexible and understand different businesses have different needs.

Based in Nowra, On Line Labour Hire has been operating for seven years, servicing companies inland to Goulburn, and along the coast from Sydney to Bega. Casual or permanent, domestic or commercial, they can provide a wide range of staff from management to blue collar workers, including trades people to labourers. They cater for all industry sectors including building and construction, hospitality, retail, industrial, transport, clerical, and demolition sectors.

On Line Labour Hire may have the perfect person in their extensive database waiting to start. If not, their experienced consultants can advertise your position, sort through the applications, check references, and then provide you with resumes from a qualified short list and arrange interviews with potential candidates.

By utilising On Line's considerable staff pool, they are able to provide people whatever the time period whether it be long term, during peak periods or as emergency replacements. On Line does all the relevant paper work and you receive one simple easy to read weekly invoice.

They can REDUCE your staff replacement costs and payroll management overheads which will in turn INCREASE your productivity and profitability, giving you the ability to create further business opportunities.
