

Airline, aviation and aerospace industry

FREE BRIEFING

You are invited to attend Ai Group's first 2010 complimentary briefing for the Airline, aviation and aerospace industry sector from 10 am to 12 noon on Monday 22 March 2010

The National Employment Standards (NES) under the Fair Work Act came into operation on 1 January 2010 and Modern Awards also became operative on 1 January 2010 – with transitional provisions in effect.

There have also been a number of important decisions of Fair Work Australia in relation to enterprise bargaining and the approval of enterprise agreements under the Fair Work Act 2009.

Join us for an update relating to current workplace relations issues, including:

The Airline Operations – Ground Staff Award 2010

- The insertion of transitional provisions and their practical effect
- The status of the ASU Application to vary the Modern Award

Fair Work Australia – recent decisions relating to:

- What constitutes a “genuine redundancy” for the purpose of unfair dismissal exemptions
- The approval and rejection of Enterprise Agreements and on what grounds
- Majority Support Determinations and Scope Orders

Achieving compliance with the National Employment Standards

- Tips for implementation
- Fair Work Australia's inaugural Minimum Wage Review in 2010

Preparing for your enterprise agreement negotiations in 2010

- Recent trends in Federal enterprise bargaining
- Common union claims
